

What Would You Do?

Umbrella Insurance

Extra Protection when you need it most

A Personal Umbrella policy offers protection for you and your family against large potentially devastating liability claims and judgments. It's called an Umbrella Policy because it layers over & above your auto, home and rental policies.

An accident on your swing set causes serious injuries to children.

Someone falls off your balcony and sustains serious injuries.

You post a negative online review that results in an alleged defamation lawsuit

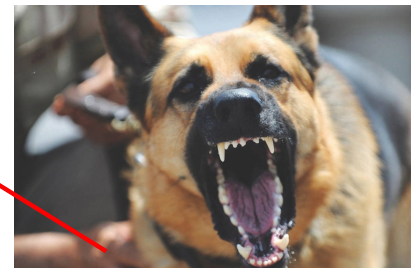

Teenagers in the neighborhood jumped your fence and had a pool party while you're on vacation.

A broken step or raised paver causes your babysitter or a guest to have an accident.

Your dog bites someone and you are sued for the damages.

Your teenage driver accidentally hits a pedestrian.

You accidentally crash your boat into another boat with multiple passengers.

You're burning leaves & cause a fire that damages neighborhood homes.
